FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 22.

CLOSE OF THE RIDENOUR MURDER CASE. The Ridenour murder case, which has been on trial in Winchester, was given to the jury yesterday afternoon, after a four hours' speech from Commonwealth's Attorney R. E. Byrd. He presented the evidence in a logical and convincing manner, grouping the facts and forging link by link a chain of strong circumstantial evidence around the strong circumstantial evidence around the prisoner. The jury was out one hour, and then returned a verdict of murder in the first degree, as charged in the indictment. The prisoner was considerably agitated, leaning over first to the jailor and then to his aged mother, whispering to each. He soon regained his usual remarkable composure, and nodded recognition to a friend in the room. The case has excited great interest, the court house being crowded during every one of fifteen days. A motion ing every one of fifteen days. A motion has been made by W. R. Alexander, counsel for the defense, for a new trial. For intricate points of law and number of witnesses this is the most interesting case, except the Cluverius case, in the history of Virginia's criminal jurisprudence.

HOBRIBLE CRIME IN MEXICO .- A dispatch from the City of Mexico gives an account of a horrible affair committed in the little city of Patzcuoro last Wednesday night. The wife of Juan Ramierez was the acknowledged belle of the town, and a great favorite. Three policemen enteredintos plot to outrage her, and on the night mentioned they went to Remierez's house, which was in the suburbs, entered his bed-room and fairly butchered him with knives, inflicting twenty wounds upon his body. Sponting blood deluged the wife as she lay by the side of her husband, and she fainted. After Ramierez was dead, they restored the wife to consciousness, and then carried out their hellish plot, leaving the noor woman almost dead. The men fled to the interior on horseback, but two of them have been cap-tured, and the third will be, as the whole country was aroused, and intense excitement prevailed.

ADMITTED HE WAS A BIGAMIST .- Joseph McFadden, of Williamsburgh, N. Y., was arraigned Tuesday, for bigamy. His two wives, one of whom, Mary Kelly, had two marriage certificates, were present to prosecute him.

"McFadden," asked the Justice, "are you married ?"

"I am sir." "To whom ?"

"To those two fine young women."

"Are there any more of your wives pres-'I don't see any."

"We will not have much trouble with your case," said the Justice, as he ordered McFadden to jail to await an examination of the complaint.

A Printer's Error.

Sweet are the uses of adversity, the printer's copy said, but he set it up, sweet are the uses of advertising. Sweet, indeed, to those who in sickness and suffering have seen the advertisement of some sovereign remedy, which upon trial has brought them from death's door. "The best thing I over saw in my paper was the advertisement of Dr. Pierce's 'Golden Medical Discovery'" is again and again the testimony of those who have been healed by it of lung disease, bronchial affections, tumors, ulcers, liver com-plaints and the ills to which flesh is heir.

W. S. MOORE,

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in counting room and workshop it has become IS PREPARED TO DO AT THE SHORTEST invaluable.

The GAZETTE has better facilities for obtaining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as All Kinds of Book and Job Printing from every part of the habitable globe. Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs in and near the city, and this feature will, as ever, receive careful attention.

Correspondence from Washington, Rich mond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily in creasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition-nearly as large as the daily-is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, ap-
